Preface

At the outset I would like to place my sincere gratitude to promising students, contemporary research scholars, innovative farmers and artisans for their standard questions and queries which enabled me to cropped-up the findings in the form of this book.

There are a number of facets discussed in this book, say for example conceptual framework, project planning, PRA, including exercises and cases in PRA, competency management. Though the numbers of volumes dealing with the subject have grown in over the years, but not much systematic and comprehensive studies/text books exist on the subject of Project Management. The study will fill up the gaps in the area of project management and should help the professionals and the students of management in particular. I hope the book will achieve the intended purpose and success in all their Endeavours.

Acknowledgment

I am dept in genial gratitude to Prof. R. C. Singh (formerly Dean, Faculty of Rural Development and Business Management, Mahatma Gandhi Chitrakoot Gramodaya Vishwavidyalaya, Chitrakoot); for their perpetual fountain of love and guidance, throughout my academic and administrative career.

Within the Har Sahai Degree College, Kanpur I would like to my special gratitude Hon'ble Principal Prof. Amar Srivastava for their inspirational thoughts which experienced during the course of this venture. I am privileged to record my sincere gratitude to Mr. Sandeep Kumar Rawat and Ms. Sneha Kumari Vishwakarma (Assistant Professor, Faculty of Commerce, Har Sahai Degree College, Kanpur) for his technical inputs in project design and for constant encouragement and support during preparation of the initial manuscript.

Words, sometimes, get inadequate to bring forth the feelings of one's heart. I also extend my sincere gratitude to my family members without their support this book could never become reality. Today, I feel thankful to my father Mr. Bachchi Lal who always encouraged me to complete my work and my mother Mrs. Shyama Devi whose blood is running in my veins. I owe a lot to my wife Mrs. Reeta Patel, son Aryan Patel and Atharva Patel, for understanding that long periods of my time and energy have had to be devoted to producing innovative manuscripts.
